Visiting Research Fellow

EDUCATION

- 2000- PhD in Archaeology.
2004 Thesis: “Aegean-type pottery in the West Mediterranean: its social and economic significance”.
Supervisor: Prof. K. Branigan, University of Sheffield, UK.
- 1999- MA in Archaeology and Prehistory (12/16).
2000 Final dissertation: “The impact of Mycenaean presence in Southern Italy, with particular reference to late Bronze Age Sicilian pottery”.
Course director: Prof. J. C. Barrett, University of Sheffield, UK.

Modules covered included Aegean prehistory, Theoretical Archaeology (including Archaeology of Social Power and Philosophy of Archaeology), Production and Consumption, Economic Archaeology, Field Techniques.

- 1994- Diploma di laurea. Final dissertation: “Depositì della III fase protopalaziale a Festòs: la fossa ‘votiva’ del vano 50 e altri complessi nell’area del palazzo” (“Deposits of the Third Protopalatial phase at Phaistos: the ‘votive’ deposit in room 50 and other architectural structures in the palace”).
1999 Four years degree, University of Venice, Italy.

Modules covered included Aegean Archaeology, Archaeology of the Ancient Near East, Greek and Roman Archaeology, Greek and Roman History, Etruscology and Prehistory of Italy, Prehistory of Europe, Latin literature, Latin epigraphy, Venetian History of Art and Archaeology, Ancient Philosophy, Geography (GIS), Field Techniques.

FIELDS OF COMPETENCY

Mediterranean archaeology (especially Greece, Italy and Spain) focusing on material culture from the Neolithic to Iron Age; prehistoric trade (obsidian, ceramics, spondylus, exotica); economic and population dynamics towards complex societies; semiotic archaeology; early symbolism and art; human-environment dynamics (coasts, wetlands and rivers); pXRF applied to obsidian, metals and ceramics; stable isotope analyses (diet); quantitative methods; European archaeology; field archaeology; digital archaeology.

LANGUAGE COMPETENCIES

English (near native), Italian (mother tongue), German (basic), Latin.

IT SKILLS

Experience in using the Windows operative system, MS Office applications including Access, online databases, graphics packages (Adobe Photoshop), Web authoring (Adobe Dreamweaver, MS Expression, CMS software), GIS (MapInfo, integrating GPS data, NASA datasets, satellite imagery, DEMs and databases).

RESEARCH ACTIVITY

2012 - present: collaborative project in southern Italy with prof. Robert Tykot, University of South Florida.

- Trade and exchange of Neolithic obsidian in Sicily and Calabria and early trade networks
- Introduction of metallurgy in Bronze Age eastern Sicily (principal investigator)
- Methodological study of prehistoric ceramic characterisation using a pXRF
- Paleolithic to Neolithic cave art at the Genovese Cave, Levanzo (principal investigator)
- Diet of Copper Age Scintilia burial individuals and its relevance in a Mediterranean setting
- Organization of an international conference on obsidian in Lipari, June 2016

2014 - present: collaborative project on Classical antiquities from Sicily with prof. D. Tanasi, University of South Florida.

- Stable isotopes on Classical Greek bones from Syracuse (Scala Greca excavations)
- pXRF study of mosaics of St. Lucy catacombs, Syracuse
- Project funded by Arcadia University

2009: Minoan deposit from the Kapheneion area of the palace of Knossos.

- INSTAP funded

2007 - present: Research on Middle Minoan “foundation” deposits.

- Multi-year project funded by INSTAP and others.

2003 - present: Research on symbolism and rituals.

- Paleolithic to Iron Age rock art at Philippi, Greece
- The ship as symbol in prehistory
- Memory and gestures in archaeology
- Semiotics and archaeology
- Contributed to Semioticon.com, University of Toronto
- Participated to advanced seminars

1995 - present: Mediterranean Bronze Age trade network.

2003 - 2004: Participation to meetings and round tables in Europe as part of the University of Leiden and University of Sheffield exchange program on archaeology.

- New methods in archaeology (semiotics, scientific methods and theoretical issues)

2002: Participation in the EU funded project GEOPRO.

- Research on integrated methods applied to ceramics studies
- I was responsible of publishing digital data

FIELDWORK AT EXCAVATIONS

2012 - present: Fieldwork in Sicily and Calabria.

- pXRF and traditional studies
- Includes supervision of postgraduate students

2008 - 2009: Project officer, Fiumedinisi excavation, Italy.

- Partly funded by the EU, I was coinvestigator in the project aiming to prove the existence of a Bronze Age settlement in the area
- Supervision of undergraduate students

2007 - 2008: Fieldwork at the Stratigraphic Museum, Knossos, and the Aghios Nikolaos Archaeological Museum, Greece.

2006: Fieldwork at Philippi, Greece.

- Supervision of undergraduate students

2005: Archaeological assistant, with ARCUS (Archaeological Consultancy at the University of Sheffield)

- Archaeological Mitigation at the former Union Grinding Wheel, Alma Street, Sheffield project
- Report available at: <http://ads.ahds.ac.uk/catalogue/library/greylit/details.cfm?id=4260>

2003: Archaeological assistant in the 2003 Brodsworth Community Archaeology project

- Community project
- I assisted volunteers and some students in addition to work in the field

1998: Participation in the Mission of the Italian School of Archaeology of Athens at Phaistos, Crete

- Included some administrative duties

TEACHING ACTIVITY

2008 - present: Teaching in connection with work at the Laboratory of Archaeological Sciences at USF

- Committee member (advisor) and co-supervisor for field research of Ashley Maxwell (PhD, on migrations and formation identity in Veneto from the end of the Roman period to the early Middle Ages, stable isotopes on late antique to early medieval bones)
- I have provided teaching to students in various projects in Sicily, plus guidance on research, especially regarding pXRF and quantitative methods. I have been particularly involved in supporting Kyle Freund (PhD on Sicilian obsidian) and Erin Mckendry (MA on pXRF to detect imported ceramics). I am helping more students starting on September 2017.
- I have taught at the 2008 Archaeological Field School in Fiumedinisi, Sicily, Italy

2006: Lecturer, at the Archaeological Field School in Philippi, Greece.

- Lectures and guidance to students in the field

2005 - 2011: Subject reviewer at Humbul Humanities Hub / cataloguer of archaeology resources Intute, University of Oxford, UK.

- Funded by the Joint Information Systems Committee (JISC) and the Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC)
- Responsible of the archaeology section: <http://www.intute.ac.uk/archaeology/>
- Project supported staff and students at UK Higher Education institutions by assessing, cataloguing and reviewing electronic resources useful in teaching and research
- Developed electronic tools for teaching
- Developed and authored Virtual Training Suite in archaeology (used as model for similar modules); available at: <http://vm-jorum.ds.man.ac.uk/xmlui/handle/10949/15533>

- Assisted UK academic staff and presented the project to universities
- Led development of archaeology section
- Podcasts on value of scientific archaeology for undergraduates

2000 - 2007: Academic tutor, Department of Archaeology, University of Sheffield, UK.

- Origins of Humanity
- World Civilisations
- European Classical Civilisations
- I marked essays and met with students as part of the tutorials.

2005 - present: Occasional supervision of students.

- I have helped in the supervision of postgraduate students

1998 - 1999: Academic tutor, University of Venice, Italy.

- Archaeology and Aegean Antiquities
- Organized seminar including a series of lectures for a total of ten hours, two tutorials and the assessment of students
- A website has been developed during the seminar (see publications)

OTHER ACTIVITIES

2016-: Member of the Biological Anthropology scientific commission at the UISPP.

2016: Scientific adviser in the preparation of the permanent exhibition of the Sant'Angelo Muxaro archaeological museum, Sicily, Italy.

2015: Helped in the organization of the public exhibition "Le storie sepolte" in Agrigento, Sicily, assisting in the production of some of the didactic panels and contributing to the catalogue.

2014: Attended workshop in Manchester on experimental obsidian knapping.

2010 - 2014: Regular contributor to CSA Newsletter.

- <http://csanet.org/newsletter/>
- Articles and conference presentations on Publishing on the Internet

2005 - 2010: Participated to European round tables on e-Learning at the Association of European Archaeologists.

2000 - 2004: Help provided in the organization and running of research seminars in Sheffield.

- SOMA 2000 conference
- Yearly Aegean seminars organized by the Department of Archaeology

1998 - present: Designed website.

- Produced for Venetian seminar
- Developed into a personal website in 1999
- Still maintained with regular articles and blog posts
